

CONTENTS

Volume 174 No 7 | July 2018

Indian Railways is facing increasing competitive threats in both the freight and passenger markets. Freight revenues continue to subsidise passenger trains, while a boom in low-cost air and coach travel threatens IR's dominance of premium inter-city routes including those used by the Rajdhani Express. (Photo: Anindya Roy)

CONTACT US

Railway Gazette International
6th Floor, Chancery House,
St Nicholas Way, Sutton,
SM1 1JB, Great Britain

Tel +44 20 8652 5200
Fax +44 20 8652 5210
editor@railwaygazette.com

See p61 for full details

 www.facebook.com/railwaygazette

 @railwaygazette

Annual subscription in USA $292.

Railway Gazette International, ISSN Number 0373-5346, is published monthly by DVV Media International Ltd, Chancery House, St Nicholas Way, Sutton, SM1 1JB, United Kingdom. Airfreight and mailing in the USA by agent named Worldnet Shipping Inc., 156-15, 146th Avenue, 2nd Floor, Jamaica, NY 11434, USA.

Periodicals postage paid at Jamaica NY 11431.

US Postmaster: Send address changes to Railway Gazette International, Worldnet Shipping Inc., 156-15, 146th Avenue, 2nd Floor, Jamaica, NY 11434, USA.

Subscription records are maintained at DVV Media International Ltd, Chancery House, St Nicholas Way, Sutton, SM1 1JB, United Kingdom.

Worldnet is acting as our mailing agent.

50

COMMENT

3 A question of timing

INTELLIGENCE

7 Main Line | Velaro Novo concept unveiled, Stadler Traverso EMU rolled out, North Korean peninsula link opens

12 Urban Rail | Delhi metro Line 8 completed, Russian urban and suburban links open ahead of World Cup, New York's Fast Forward plan

16 Market | Contracts & Tenders

18 Industry | GE Transportation and Wabtec to merge, Pesa purchase agreed

19 Innovations | Nexus Alpha launches real-time information suite for operational staff, child-friendly journey planner developed

20 Analysis | Last train to Le Tréport, timetable recast brings disruption across northern England, Tehran metro car order halted by sanctions

INDIA

24 Financial crunch demands a change of course | Indian Railways' declining financial and commercial position runs counter to the government's targets for increasing rail's market share. Urgent reforms and streamlining are required, suggests Raghu Dayal

30 Reinventing the major stations | Indian Railways has announced plans to modernise or redevelop 400 of its busiest stations, improving passenger facilities and creating opportunities for private investment

34 Greater Delhi's economic enabler | Ambitious plans are taking shape for an eight-route regional express rail network to serve the rapidly-developing National Capital Region

38 Enabling a low-cost speed-up | Trials on IR's Northern Railway have confirmed the feasibility of running high horsepower electric locomotives in multiple to speed up long-distance passenger services

THE WHOLE-LIFE TRAIN

40 Rekindling a spirit of research | The Institute of Railway Research at

Huddersfield University is playing a leading role in the newly formed UK Rail Research & Innovation Network. Prof Simon Iwnicki explains how the centre is reviving a spirit of collaborative innovation between academia and industry

42 Civity multiple-units are ready to roll | The delivery of 98 Civity DMUs and EMUs for the UK's Northern franchise will bring welcome relief for overcrowded routes in the north of England, boosting capacity and allowing older trains to be withdrawn

46 Graphene supercapacitor DMUs take shape | CRRC Zhuzhou is building a fleet of inter-city trainsets for Malaysia's KTMB which are fitted with graphene-based supercaps

48 Making an entrance | The Class 345 EMUs now being delivered for London's Elizabeth Line are among the first to feature IFE's Generation 4 door system

IN FOCUS

50 Building a sustainable business | Eight years after being bought back from the private sector by the state government, TasRail is close to achieving financial self-sufficiency. New CEO Steven Dietrich and his predecessor Damien White explain to Chris Jackson how the railway has been turned around

54 'Made in Wales' rail contract awarded | Keolis and Amey have been awarded a contract to operate trains across Wales until 2033 in a landmark agreement which also includes transfer of infrastructure and development of a light rail line in Cardiff

FORUM

58 People | Molefe takes charge at Transnet, Vounassis becomes Bombardier Transportation COO

59 Research & Skills | Australian research hub opens, UIC alliance promotes high speed rail

60 Dieter | Sidetrack

61 Diary & Contact

62 Viewpoint | Advances in technology bring opportunities for a more decentralised approach to railway command and control systems, argues European Agency for Railways Director Josef Doppelbauer

